

SERVOCHEM

Position/Designation:			Position Location
Production Chemist			U.A.E.
Reporting To			Reporting Location
Management			Umm Al Quwain & Abu Dhabi
Experience			Qualification:
5 to 7 years			M.Sc. / B.Sc. (Chemistry)

Job Requirement: Candidate must be Young, Self-Driver, Ambitions & having work experience in the same field. You'll need to understand how to develop / alter raw materials into a range of useful products while taking into consideration health and safety and cost issues.

Servo Group of Company seeks a Production Chemist with sound knowledge in chemical industry, especially in Water Treatment & Specialty Chemicals.

Job Responsibilities :

- Perform chemical analysis & physical property testing of material & products
- Research new products from trial through to commercialisation and improve product lines
- Coordinate & perform testing
- Analysis data to develop conclusion
- Communicate result of analysis & research
- Evaluate current processes and develop improvements to safety, quality & efficiency.
- Create standards and specifications for processes, facilities, products & test.
- Assist in establishment of timeline and budgets.
- Design plant and equipment configuration so that they can be readily adapted to suit the product range and the process technologies involved, taking environmental and economic aspects into account.
- design, install and commission new production plants, including monitoring developments and troubleshooting
- Perform routine calibration and troubleshooting of instruments
- Provide training and mentorship to technical staff
- Writing of technical reports

Chemical Engineer Qualification & Skills

- Applied knowledge of analytical chemistry techniques
- Demonstrated ability to solve highly technical problems
- Strong technical writing ability
- Direct experience with the use of spreadsheet & database software to compile, analyze, and present data
- Familiarity with process improvement methodologies (Six Sigma, lean manufacturing)
- Ability to execute tasks with minimal oversight
- Excellent presentation and verbal communication skills in English & Hindi

Chemical Engineer Education & Experience Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in chemical engineering or a related field
- Master's degree in chemical engineering or a related field desirable

Five to Seven year's experience in a production field of Water Treatment Chemicals is mandatory.

Proficiency with Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, Outlook, Power Point)

Strong technical background in water and wastewater treatment processes

What to expect

Work may take place in a lab, office or processing plant. Development work may progress from lab to plant or on field.

Safety is a high priority in chemical industries, and hygiene is critical in food water treatment production. In certain circumstances, you'll need to wear safety or protective

Travel and overseas work depend based on the companies requirement. Travel and overseas postings are only occasionally necessary, while overseas projects are the norms.

Perform all duties to the latest ISO 9001 requirements